

APPRENTICESHIP AWARDS 2019

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. What type of event is the Apprenticeship Awards Celebration?

The Apprenticeship Awards Celebration is an opportunity to celebrate outstanding achievement in trades training and certification. Newly certified journeypersons from each trade, employers, instructors, and partners in training and certification are honoured for their achievement, hard work and support of training in the trades.

The awards evening is a time to celebrate that achievement with a banquet and a formal awards presentation. The evening starts at 5:30 p.m. with hors d'oeuvres (cash bar available) followed by a dinner buffet at 6:30 p.m. and the awards presentation at 7:30 p.m. The evening is over at approximately 9:00 p.m.

2. I plan to attend the awards. Do I receive a ticket?

No, you will NOT receive a formal ticket to the celebration. Your name or organization will be checked when registering at the banquet.

3. May I invite guests to the awards celebration?

Yes, the cost for each additional guest is $50. There is no limit to the number of additional tickets for purchase prior to the deadline.

4. Are children invited to this celebration?

While children are not prohibited, the Apprenticeship Awards celebration is a licensed event with a 60 to 90-minute program. If you have any questions, please contact Audrey Wolf-Kaminski at (306) 787-5284.

5. What should I wear to the awards celebration?

The dress code for the evening is semi-formal or business attire. For women, dress pants, a skirt or a dress would be appropriate. For men, dress pants, sports jacket or suit are all appropriate.

6. Will I be able to sit with my guests?

Seating is arranged for you in tables of eight. Should there be more than eight people in your group, we try to seat you at tables next to each other whenever possible.

7. Where is the Conexus Arts Centre located?
